

My Name is Jamie Rochelle Mc Dade and i was born in West Los Angeles , California but raised in Inglewood for the first few years of my life. Currently i am a senior at San Jose State University and i am Studying Public Relations and plan to have a minor and academic focus in Business and marketing. When i was in the second grade my family moved to the San Fernando Valley due to violence and the desire to live in a safer environment. As a child i participated in various activies that have activated a few of my desires to travel to new places such as the Girl Scouts of America and attending a few camping trips for enriched students. I have also studied abroad through my Community College, Santa Monica College. I studied abraod in Sydney, Australia and attended the University of Sydney. Along with Sydney i have traveled to Auckland, New Zealand as well as Nadi, Fiji. I recieved my Associates Degree in Liberal Arts from Santa Monica College and transfered to SJSU. I aspire to travel and would love to be apart of a global corporation, but at this moment i plan to attend Law School and become a public attorney. Although i am not 100% sure i would love for this to occur. I am a very open minded person and can be very spontaneous when it comes to participating in new adventures. Ultimately i would like to be very successful and hopefully be married with a few kids someday as well as retire in a economy like ours!!!!
